

Florin Negreanu

Biography

Florin Negreanu began to study music at a very young age, under the guidance of his mother, who played a very important role in his music education.

Later, he studied violin at the George Enescu National College, in Mihaela Mailat's class. At the age of 19, he left Romania for Netherlands, where he studied in Hague the Royal Conservatory and the Conservatory in Rotterdam. During these years he accumulated a vast repertoire, which allowed him to continue his concert career with various ensembles and orchestras in the adoptive country.

Today, Florin Negreanu is a constant presence on the Dutch stage, being also a member of the Gaudi quartet (www.gaudikwartet.nl).

He promotes young talents from Netherlands and Romania through the chamber music courses and concerts that he organizes. In addition, he has a passion for restoring string instruments. Florin is the "doctor of violins" (www.devioldokter.nl). His soul project is the renovation of a former school in Germany, a school that will become a place to promote culture on all levels.

More details can be found by accessing the facebook account, at <https://www.facebook.com/kukschuller/?pnref=lhc>.